NAME: _____ PARTNER: _____ TOPIC: _____

Category		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Mark
Knowledge & Understanding	Observation: Video Lesson Content	Confusing or contains factual and/or mathematical errors.	Generally accurate but clearly contains a factual or mathematical error.	Mostly accurate but may contain a factual or mathematical error.	Highly accurate with no factual or mathematical errors.	/15
	Web page Sequencing and Content	No clear plan or organization of web page, viewers have difficulty following.	Some information is organized but viewers may have difficulty following along or navigating.	Most of the information is organized in a clear, logical way and is easy to navigate the lesson.	Information and lesson is always organized in a clear, logical way. Lesson progression is excellent for teaching the topic.	/15
Application	Homework	Practice materials are not sufficient to prepare for the assessment.	Practice does a sufficient job preparing students for assessment.	Practice effectively ensures students are prepared for assessment.	Practice effectively prepares students for assessment and offers opportunities to expand upon skills learned.	/10
	Effectiveness	Explanation of topic is confusing and incomplete. Video is incomprehensible.	Topic is somewhat explained but can sometimes be hard to understand. Poor visuals in the videos	Topic is sufficiently explained and understood after viewing. Acceptable visuals in the video.	Topic is explained in a highly effective way and viewers have complete understanding. Videos have effective visuals.	/10
	Organization	Topics are poorly organized and navigation is confusing.	Topics are slightly structured but navigation is hard to follow.	Topics and subtopics are structured and navigation is easy to follow.	Topics ad subtopics are highly classified and structured and navigation is very efficient.	/10
Communication	Observation: Delivery and Timing	Little or no attention to rate, volume, minimal mathematical	Some attention given to rate, volume, and vocabulary, relied on	Good rate, volume and use of vocabulary, mostly did not rely on	Excellent rate, volume and vocabulary, did not rely on notes	/10

NAME: _____ PARTNER: _____ TOPIC: _____

		vocabulary used. Little action, boring with pauses or bad pacing.	notes. Some action, some pauses or irregular pacing.	notes Mostly active throughout, few pauses and good pacing.	Very active throughout, no pauses and excellent and engaging pacing.
Thinking	Assessments (2)	Assessment does not or is ineffective in assessing the skills taught. Assessment does not incorporate multiple categories. Solutions not provided or contain many errors.	Assessment assesses the skills taught somewhat effectively. Some skills may be missing from assessment or assessment may be too easy. Solutions provided but may be incomplete or contain errors.	Considerable thought into effectively assessing the skills taught Assessment incorporates multiple categories. Solutions provided.	Assessment is highly effective in assessing the skills taught and includes a variety of techniques and categories. Assessment provides a challenge or opportunity to extend thinking. Solutions and student samples provided.	/20
	Conversation: Conference - see anecdotal notes for evidence and feedback	Little to no progress has been made towards beginning site. Little to no constructive feedback can be provided due to lack of materials.	Some progress has been made towards completing sections of the website but some may not have been started. Some questions and guidance are provided.	Consistent effort has been applied to prepare all sections of webpage. Constructive feedback is provided to assist in completion.	Excellent effort has been made towards preparing all sections of web page and only fine-tuning is needed. Feedback and questions assist in further enhancing work completed.	/10
TOTAL						/100